

Safeguarding Policy for Crockenhill Village Hall Management Committee (CVHMC)

1. Purpose

Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and adults at risk from abuse or neglect.

This policy defines how Crockenhill Village Hall Management Committee (CVHMC) operates to safeguard children, young people and adults at risk of abuse or neglect.

We have a duty of care and are committed to the protection and safety of everyone who enters our premises including children, young people and adults at risk involved as visitors and/or as participants in all activities and events. We also have a duty to safeguard and support our trustees, volunteers, and staff.

2. Definitions

Children and young people are defined as those persons aged under 18 years old. This policy will apply to all staff, contractors and volunteers and will be used to support their work.

Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is defined as:

- protecting children from maltreatment
- preventing impairment of children's health and development
- ensuring that children grow up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care
- taking action to enable all children to have the best outcomes.

Adult at risk of abuse or neglect

For the purposes of this policy, adult at risk refers to someone over 18 years old who:

- has care and support needs
- is experiencing, or is at risk of, abuse or neglect
- as a result of their care and support needs is unable to protect himself or herself against the abuse or neglect or the risk of it.

If someone has care and support needs but is not currently receiving care or support from a health or care service, they may still be an adult at risk.

3. Persons affected

- All trustees, volunteers, and staff
- All those attending any activity or service that is being delivered from the village hall charity property
- All visitors and contractors

4. Policy principles

CVHMC accept there can be no excuses for not taking all reasonable action to protect adults at risk of abuse, exploitation, radicalisation, and mistreatment and that all citizens of the United Kingdom have protection under the Human Rights Act. People who are eligible to receive health and community care services may be additionally vulnerable to the violation of these rights by reason of disability, impairment, age, or illness.

CVHMC has a zero-tolerance approach to abuse.

CVHMC recognises that it has a duty for the safety and care and protection of adults and children who are at risk of abuse.

CVHMC is committed to promoting wellbeing, harm prevention and to responding effectively if concerns are raised.

CVHMC is aware of its part to play in stopping abuse where it is happening and preventing abuse where there is a risk that it may occur.

CVHMC is committed to the following principles:

- The welfare of the child, young person or adult at risk is paramount
- All children, young people and adults at risk have the right to protection from abuse
- Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility: for services to be effective each professional & organisation should play their full part
- And ALL suspicions and allegations of abuse must be properly reported to the relevant internal and external authorities and dealt with swiftly and appropriately.

5. Procedures

- a. All members of the committee will have signed the Trustee Statement of Eligibility form* for trustees which includes a declaration that they have no convictions in relation to abuse.
- b. All members of the committee familiarise themselves annually with the Charity policies and training on safeguarding issues including whistleblowing would be made available on request.
- c. All members of the committee will work together to promote a culture that enables issues about safeguarding and promoting welfare to be addressed.
- d. All members of the committee, helpers or other volunteers will not have unsupervised access to children or adults at risk unless appropriately vetted.
- e. The hall committee will follow current recruitment practices.
- f. A member of the committee appointed to be responsible for health and safety and or the Chair will have the responsibility for reporting concerns that arise, as a matter of urgency, to the relevant safeguarding agency.
- g. All suspicions or allegations of abuse against a child or adult at risk will be taken seriously and dealt with speedily and appropriately. The appointed person will know who to contact and where to go for support and advice in relation to an allegation a concern about the quality of care or practice or a complaint. An allegation may relate to a person who works with children or adult at risk who has:
  - behaved in a way that has harmed a child or adult at risk or may have harmed a child or adult at risk.
  - possibly committed a criminal offence against or related to a child or adult at risk; or
  - behaved towards a child or children or adult at risk in a way that indicates they may pose a risk of harm to children.
- h. The hall committee will ensure that all hirers of the hall have signed a hiring agreement. This will require all hirers who wish to use the hall for activities which include children and adults at risk, other than for hire for private parties arranged for invited friends and family, to produce on request a copy of their Safeguarding Policy and evidence that they have carried out relevant checks through the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS).
- i. CVHMC carry out an annual review of this policy.
